Authorisation

☐ Authorised Person ☐ Client Authority ☐ Power of Attorney

An Authorised Person Authority: can only be authorised by the policy holder, regardless if it is an existing or new policy. An Authorised Person cannot cancel the policy or terminate the policy holder from the policy and change the policy into their name.
Client Authority: A Client Authority is required for persons other than those listed on the policy, to access personal and sensitive information about the policy in question and claim on the policy holder's behalf.
Power of Attorney: A Power of Attorney is a document that allows a person (donor) to appoint another person to make financial and/or medical and/or lifestyle decisions on their behalf, dependent upon the Power of Attorney that has been made.
